

Doctoral dissertations maintained in 2011

Surname, Name	Department	Dissertation
LAZDAUSKAS Tomas	Department of Clinical and Organizational Psychology	Children's psychological adjustment and its dynamics in the context of children-parents separation
TAROZIENĖ Viktorija	Department of General Psychology	Social information processing and criminal behavior
MIŠKINYTĖ Audronė	Department of Clinical and Organizational Psychology	The relationship of body image attitudes to personality traits and subjective quality of life
GIEDRAITYTĖ Marija	Department of Clinical and Organizational Psychology	The Psychosocial Functioning Of Children from Migrant Families during the Middle Childhood
LAZAUSKAITĖ-ZABIELSKĖ Jurgita	Department of Clinical and Organizational Psychology	Perceived overall justice of organization: its antecedents and role in organization
MATAITYTĖ-DIRŽIENĖ Jurga	Department of Sociology	Representations of People with Mental Disorders in the Lithuanian Mass Media
DUNAJEVAS Eugenijus	Department of Sociology	The development of personal social services in post-communist Lithuania
VILUCKIENĖ Jolita	Lithuanian Social Research Centre	Phenomenological analysis of the lifeworld of persons with motor disability
GEDVILAITĖ-KORDUŠIENĖ Margarita	Lithuanian Social Research Centre	Intergenerational relationships and their determinants
LABANAUSKAS Liutauras	Lithuanian Social Research Centre	Social Cohesion in Lithuania: The Role of Intellectual Capital
ZYGMANTAS Janete	Department of Educology	Adult Newcomers' Difficulties in Learning Lithuanian: an Ethnographic Case Study

MACKONIS Adolfas	Department of Logic and History of Philosophy	Inference to the Best Explanation: The Limits of Truth-Conduciveness
SALDUKAITYTĖ Jolanta	Department of Philosophy	Thinking of Difference in M. Heidegger and E. Levinas
STOŠKUS Mindaugas	Department of Logic and History of Philosophy	Relation between Political Philosophy and Political Science: Analysis of Leo Strauss's arguments