

Doctoral dissertations maintained in 2012

Surname, Name	Department	Dissertation
BARTKIENĖ Aistė	Department of Philosophy	A search for methodological basis in theories of bioethics, based on deontology and utilitarianism
DARAŠKEVIČIŪTĖ Vaiva	Department of Philosophy	The transformation of the concept of aesthetics: B. Croce and H. G. Gadamer
MOLOTOKIENĖ Ernesta	Department of Philosophy	The problem of relation between perception and imagination in Husserl's philosophy
ŠALAJ Jelena	Department of Clinical and Organizational Psychology	Experience of aliveness within experience of being: interpretative phenomenological analysis
POVILAITIENĖ Ieva	Department of Clinical and Organizational Psychology	Relatives of the first episode psychosis patients: the relationship between appraisal of illness situation, social support, and psychological distress over time
ŠARAKAUSKIENĖ Živilė	Department of General Psychology	Schoolchildren's psychological well-being: structure and sociodemographic and personality factors
ŠIMELIONIENĖ Aida	Department of General Psychology	Factors affecting the achievements of intellectually gifted children
RADZEVIČIENĖ Aldona	Department of General Psychology	The mechanisms of lines fragments orientation and location in the depth perception
VASKELIENĖ Ieva	Department of Clinical and Organizational Psychology	Long-term psychological effects of political repression in Lithuania to second generation
MALINAUSKAITĖ Aušra	Department of Sociology	The dramaturgical model of social interaction: the case of former users of psychoactive substances
DOBRYNINA Margarita	Department of Sociology	The construction of crime knowledge in public discourse
RAPOLIENĖ Gražina	Department of Sociology	Is old age stigma? Ageing identity in Lithuania