INVITATION TO THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Diversity Development Group together with partners of the InterCap project<sup>1</sup> invite you to the International Conference
INTERNATIONAL MIGRATION, SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT AND DEVELOPMENT EDUCATION: WAYS FORWARD

Theater hall, Vilnius University, Universiteto str.3, Vilnius, Lithuania

12 October 2018

The participation in the Conference is free

Working language is English.

The conference will address the emerging concern on the way in which public perceptions of (in)security influence the understanding of international migration on one hand, and creates unfriendly public and political discourse around asylum, migration and integration issues on the other hand.

The Conference is for education actors, decision makers, public servants, local education authorities, instructional designers, teacher trainers, pre-service and in-service teachers, school staff and the general public; a certificate of participation shall be given upon completion of all sessions.

Registration is obligatory. Please, fill in the registration form by 10th of October.

The main aim of InterCap project is to establish European civil society organisation-university networks to build the capacities of the education actors to promote development education on international migration, security and sustainable development.
